An Adulteration Act is a collection of ten short stories, each of which is a masterpiece of the genre. The stories are full of humor, wit, and wisdom, and they offer a unique glimpse into the lives of ordinary people in the late 19th and early 20th centuries.

The title story, "An Adulteration Act," is a hilarious tale of two friends who try to pass off a fake painting as a masterpiece. The story is full of twists and turns, and it will keep you entertained from beginning to end.

The other stories in the collection are equally enjoyable. "The Lady of the Barge" is a touching story about a young woman who falls in love with a bargeman. "The Well" is a chilling tale of a man who is haunted by a ghost. And "The Monkey's Paw" is a classic horror story about a family who is granted three wishes.

If you are looking for a great collection of short stories, then I highly recommend An Adulteration Act. You will not be disappointed.
