A Beautiful and Heartwarming Story About Identity, Friendship, and the Power of Self-Acceptance

Cloulette is a young girl who has always felt different. She doesn't look like the other kids in her town, and she doesn't always understand their ways. But when she meets a new friend named Marigold, everything changes. Marigold is different too, but she's proud of it. She teaches Cloulette to embrace her own uniqueness and to never be afraid to be herself.

Cloulette is a beautiful and heartwarming graphic novel that celebrates diversity and self-acceptance. It's a story that will resonate with readers of all ages, and it's sure to stay with you long after you've finished reading it.
